Therese A. “Teri” Cannon Scholarship for Attendance at the IPMA Annual Conference

SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTION:
The Therese A. “Teri” Cannon Educational Scholarship was created to honor Teri Cannon for her many years of dedicated service to the IPMA and to recognize her commitment to the education of paralegal and practice management professionals. This Scholarship was designed to assist members in furthering their professional development and network.

ABOUT THERESE A. CANNON, ESQ.:
Teri Cannon, Esq. was an Executive Vice President for the Commission of Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges from 2006 to 2012. Ms. Cannon was a member of the Standing Committee on Paralegals of the American Bar Association from 1996-2006. She also served on its Approval Commission from 1991 to 1996, the last two and half years as a chair. In addition, she served as Educational Standards Consultant to the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California for eight years prior to assuming the position as Dean of John F. Kennedy University School of Law. Currently, Ms. Cannon is a higher education consultant.

She is the Past President of the America Association of Paralegal Education and served on its Board of Directors for six years.

Teri has made many contributions to the legal profession. She was one of the original pioneer paralegals in the country. She has authorized and co-authorized publications on Ethics and Professional Responsibility and Paralegal Utilization.

Ms. Cannon earned her undergraduate degree at UCLA and her law degree at Loyola Law School in Los Angeles.

QUALIFICATION FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP:
Any Regular, Associate, Life or Emeritus IPMA member may apply for the Scholarship if the cost of the Conference Registration fee is not covered by their employer. The individual must complete the attached application from and submit it to the Awards Committee.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD:
The Scholarship recipient will receive one (1) complimentary registration to the 35th Annual IPMA Annual Conference & Expo scheduled for October 23-25, 2019, in Seattle Washington.

SELECTION PROCESS:
All applicants are anonymous to the Awards Committee members responsible for judging the applications. The Awards Committee will designate one (1) recipient for the Scholarship Award.

To allow time to plan travel arrangements, the Award recipient will be notified by September 1, 2019, and he or she will be recognized during the Awards Presentation at the Annual Conference. If the Award recipient has registered for the Annual Conference and paid for his or her registration prior to being notified on September 1, 2019, the IPMA will reimburse the Award recipient for the cost of his or her registration fee.

PRIVACY STATEMENT:
All information provided will be kept strictly confidential by the members of the IPMA Awards Committee, Board of Directors and headquarters staff.
